DR.CURRYCROSS-EXAMINED

WITNESS DID NOT KNOW THAT PAT-

RICK WAS RICE'S LAWYER. Most of the time of Recorder Goff and the jury in the Patrick trial was taken up yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Osborne's cross-examina tion of Dr. Walker Curry. The physician was the first witness for the defence heard on Thursday, and when the court adjourned late in the afternoon Mr. Moore, of Patrick's counsel, was arguing for leave to ask Dr. Curry what he had heard Charles F. Jones, the former valet of W. M. Rice. say to Mr. Rice about Patrick. The Recorder at the opening of the court yesterday morning decided to allow the question, and Dr. Curry said: "I heard Jones say to Mr. Rice: 'Meyer and Short, the two young men from Mr. Patrick's office, are here.' Mr. Rice replied to let them wait

After Dr. Curry had said he told Patrick that Mr. Rice was old and feeble and might die at any time, he was turned over to Mr. Osborne for crossexamination Mr. Osborne had him produce a record of the Rice case, and wanted particularly to know why he had written a memorandum about Mr. Rice's death several months after Mr. Rice died. Dr. Curry said he had dictated the memorandum at a time when he was ill in bed. He said he had told Patrick on the day before Mr. Rice died, in September, 1900, that Mr. Rice might

Curry bothered the counsel on both sides and the Recorder by insisting on explaining answers. Mr. Moore kept interfering with Mr. Osne's examination, and once the Recorder rebuked Mr. Moore, telling him he was impertment "Did Mr. Rice ever send Patrick to you?" asked

'He never did." was Dr. Curry's answer.

-Will you tell us the exact words Jones used h you when he took you into Mr. Rice's room? Jones said: "Don't mention Patrick's name to Rice Mr. Rice does not care to have his hust-

Mr. Rice Mr. Rice does not care to have his hustness talked about."

Q—Did you know before the death of Mr. Rice that he was a client of Patrick's? A.—I only judged it, because I heard Jones tell Mr. Rice two young men from Fatrick's office were waiting to see him. Q—Is that not a story of recent construction?

A—It is the truth.

Q—Did you know that Patrick was Mr. Rice's lawyer? A.—I did not know it.

Q—Did you believe that Patrick was Mr. Rice's lawyer? A.—I did not know anything about it. I did not believe it. Except for what I have told you I had no grounds for believing it.

Q—On September 22, 1990, did you believe Patrick was Rice's lawyer? A.—I did not.

Q—On September 23 did you believe it? A.—Not until after Mr. Rice's death.

Q—You knew Patrick was engaged in a suit against Mr. Rice. Do you think you had a right to divulse to him that Mr. Rice had a weak heart and was suffering from mental depression? A.—I don't think I did any harm. I know Mr. Patrick to be a gentleman.

Q—Do you think it right to make such disclosures to be a gentleman.

Q.—Do you think it right to make such disclosures to a lawyer? A.—It depends upon the lawyer.

The witness said he had no knowledge that Mr. Rice had taken mercury. At counsel's request he described the symptoms of mercurial poisoning, and said that Mr. Rice did vomit and did suffer from diarrheea, both symptoms of such poison. Curry qualified the answer by saying that the nausea was due to eggs, and the other trouble to bananas. That portion of his answer was stricken

-Do you believe the diarrhoza contributed to Rice's death? A.-I do. It undoubtedly weakened him.

Q.—Do you believe the vomiting injured him? A.
—I do. It weakened his nerve force.
Q.—Would you, under any circumstances, have administered chloroform to Mr. Rice in the weak condition of heart you have described. A.—I would not.

Q.—How many whiffs of chloroform would it have taken to kill Mr. Rice on September 23, if placed in a cone and placed over his face? A.—Three or four minutes. I could not tell how many whiffs.

Q.—Would ten whiffs kill an old man with a weak heart? A.—I would expect him to be under the Influence of the chloroform in five or ex respirations.

Q.—What are the relations between you and Mr. Patrick? A.—I have been his physician about seven years. I attended his wife while she was living. I also attended Mrs. Francis, with whom Patrick boarded.

Q.-Have you attended Morris Meyer? A.-I at--Did you ever attend David L. Short? A .--

Dr. Curry said he had not presented to Patrick any bill for his services to Mr. Rice. At the end of the cross-examination, the Recorder adjourned the trial until Monday morning.

Judge Wallace was a brevet brigadier general of the Civil War. He served as United States as-sessor in the district of Cook County under the second administration of Grant, and he became noted during the whiskey scandal as the man who refused a bribe of $75,000 said to have been offered by the Whiskey Ring. He had always been known for his sterling honesty, but from that day he was pointed to with pride by persons discrediting the allegation that every man has his price. He was a native of Ohio, and had resided in Illinois since 1834. He studied law in the Ottawa, Ill., office of General Lew Wallace. When war was declared he went to the front as a major in the 4th Illinois Volunteer Cavalry. He was promoted through the various grades to brevet brigadler general at the close of the war. After eight years as judge of the County Court, which at that time embodied the Probate Court, he became attorney for the county hoard. He had been a United States Jury Commissioner for forty years. #### TRAIN WRECKED IN TEXAS

FIFTEEN KILLED AND MANY INJURED-CARS TAKE FIRE.

THOMAS RYAN ON TRAIN WITH FAMILY WHO ESCAPE INJURY.

San Antonio, Tex., March 7 .- A broken rail caused a frightful wreck on the Southern Pacific Railroad, near Maxon Station, twenty-five west of Sanderson, at 3 o'clock this morn From the latest accounts received here fifteen people were killed outright, and twenty eight were more or less injured. The dead: children of MART RIDDLE, of Chetopa, Kan.

ESTAVON CONTRARAS, Del Rio, Tex. ANDREW C. SHELLY, wife and child, Loirer, Tex. Child of D. E. HOUSEN, Racine, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. WHITE, Manitowoo, Wis. Al. MAST, engineer, El Paso, Tex. CHRIS. KEEL, contractor, San Antonio, W. W. PRICE, engineer, San Antonio, H. BERTSCHOLST, fireman, El Paso, Tex.

L. A. BOONE, news agent, Doyline, La. The ill fated train left San Antonio at noon on Thursday, two and a half hours late, and at the time of the accident was running at a high rate of speed in order to make up time. The road at the point where the wreck occurred is in a rough country, the curves being sharp and the grades heavy. It was when rounding a curve that the train left the track, on account of a broken rail, it is said. The hour was 3 a. m. fifteen hours after the train had left San Antonio, showing that it was still behind time. All the passengers were asleep, and the shock that followed was the first intimation they had of the danger.

The train was going at such a rate of speed that the tender and engine landed seventy-five feet from where they left the rails. The cars behind piled up against the engine, caught fire, and all were consumed except the sleepers. A private car owned by Thomas Ryan, of

New-York City, with his family aboard, was attached to the rear of the train, but it was pulled away before the fire reached it, and no one in it was injured.

All the injured in the coaches just behind the express and baggage cars were cremated. The express and baggage cars were cremated. Ine people in the sleepers were saved with the assistance of the uninjured passengers.

The wrecked train was the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio westbound passenger, and consisted of an engine, mail car, baggage car, one coach, one chair car, three tourist sleepers, one Pullman sleeper and one private car.

The mail car, the baggage car and coaches were piled together against the engine, and were ablaze in a few seconds. It was impossible to move any of the coaches or the tourist cars, as they were all off the rails, and were soon consumed by the flames.

As soon as it was possible to get in communi-cation with the division headquarters relief trains with surgeons and physicians were started from El Paso, Del Rio and Sanderson, picking up along the line all the surgeons that could be found. All the injured who were in a condition to be moved were sent to El Paso, where they are re-ceiving careful attention. W. G. Van Vliek, general manager of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Rail-road, was at San Antonio, and started at once on a special train for the scene of the wreck.

THOMAS F. RYAN SAFE.

Thomas F. Ryan, vice-president of the Morton Trust Company, who left New-York last Sunday, accompanied by his wife and a party of friends, on a vacation trip to Southern California, was in the Southern Pacific wreck, but dispatches received yesterday by Mr. Ryan's associates here reported that none of the party was hurt, their private car, the Pere Marquette, being the only car of the train which escaped injury.

An early report that E. H. Harriman's party were in the disaster, proved erroneous Several messages were received at the Union Pacific offices in the course of the day from Mr. Harriman, and none of them referred to his having been in the wreck. Trust Company, who left New-York last Sunday

At the XVth District headquarters, in Washington Hall. No. 781 Eighth-ave., Mr. Nixon was received with applause which lasted for several

we are rapidly getting back to Democratic principles, and one thing that I shall stand for all the lime is home rule. And hereafter we don't intend to put anything in our platform that we won't stand for. So in the future no clique of men shall say to any district. which will be more interesting than ever To-morrow. A few of the attractions are listed below.

The Great Flood.

flood at Pittsburg. Roating, rafting. etc., in the streets.

Cock Fighting.

Porto Rico before American rule had many followers of this cruel sport. It is to be abolished by law. Pictures of a cock corral near San Juan just before a big Sunday main.

Prince Henry

Will occupy the best apartments on the huge steamer Deutschland when he sails for home next week. Some views of the rooms.

Public Baths.

San Francisco has most luxurious pub lie baths, which accommodate a thousand people at one time, and entertain them with variety performances while they are bathing. Food is also supplied, as well as soap and towels. The Reform Administration of New York is considering similar projects.

Adirondack Guides.

Forty of these denizens of the woods were dined and wined by W. C. Whitney recently. An account of their recent annual convention, with some interesting hunting yarns, attractively illustrated.

Newark, N. J.

Newark has become the financial centre of New Jersey. Its vast banking resources, insurance companies and 4,000 industries have put it in the front rank. They are now looking forward to the formation of a "Greater
